Learn how to make Edo Tsumami Kanzashi from the only authentic Edo Tsumami Kanzashi artisan in the U.S.!

Kanzashi is an ornamental hairpin and its history goes back as far as 3000 years. There are many types of Kanzashi, Edo Tsumami Kanzashi was developed during the Edo period when the technique of Hana-kanzashi, worn by apprentice Geisha in Kyoto, was brought over to Edo (modern day Tokyo). It is a designated traditional handicraft in Tokyo and Chiba prefecture today. The art is disappearing due to fewer people wearing Kimono. However, it is becoming very popular among non-Japanese incorporating it into Western attire, such as Katy Perry wearing it at the MTV Music Awards ceremony.

In this workshop, you will make a set of Spring Fragrance: Three level large Peach blossom clip with dangling petal string & Narcissus clip as shown above (picture-left), improve two level construction going over the lower petals, learn a challenging "opened" dangling petal string, and elaborate three level petal construction by Hashikiri technique. The class fee includes all materials. You can separately purchase the "home practice kit of four Plum Blossom Bobby pin set" for $20. Please make the payment when you sign-up for the workshop. Your practice pieces will be reviewed by the instructor the following month for constructive criticism.

Students who complete Beginner 6 can precede to Beginner 7 the following workshop to learn new techniques & designs. You will be able to make many types of Edo Tsumami Kanzashi throughout the year, as the workshop offers the higher level every month. Students may repeat the same level if they feel that they are not ready to proceed. New students are always welcome every month but they will start from Level 1: Four Single layer Plum Blossom Bobby Pins. (Click here for workshop material). New Students will learn about history/types/materials/motifs/artisanship of the Edo Tsumami Kanzashi.

*The workshop is for hobby purpose only. By signing up to this workshop, you agree not to sell the completed items or reveal class materials for business purposes.

Instructor: Kuniko Kanawa (Edo Tsumami Kanzashi artisan/Certified Kimono Consultant/Kimono model). For her full profile, please visit <http://www.atelierkanawa.com>
